Agenda item 85 (b)
Sustainable development: further implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States

Letter dated 26 October 2004 from the Permanent Representative of New Zealand to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

In my capacity as facilitator of the informal consultations for the preparatory process for the International Meeting to Review the Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, to be held in Mauritius in January 2005, I have the honour to transmit to you the outcome of those informal consultations, held from 17 to 19 May and on 7, 8 and 11 October 2004. On behalf of the Member States participating in these informal consultations, I ask that this paper be circulated to all Member States as an official document of the United Nations,[1] to assist them with their preparations for the International Meeting.

(Signed) Don MacKay
Permanent Representative of New Zealand to the United Nations
